

AN HERESS to Millions HELD UP FOR Riverside AUTO RACING

May Harriman, Daughter of Railroad Magnate, in Court
Pays Chauffeur's Fine.

EXCITED, FORGOT LAW.

Takes Blame for Sixty-Mile-an-Hour Clip Attained in Warm Sprint.

Miss May Harriman, eldest daughter of E. H. Harriman, multi-millionaire and railroad magnate, was held up on Riverside Drive today for racing her foreign built car against a machine of American manufacture. Both autos were going at a furious speed and the young woman had lost all thought of law and municipal ordinances in the excitement of the contest.

She admitted this very frankly in the West Side Court, where she paid her chauffeur's fine.

The young woman recently purchased a forty-horse-power French car, a machine built both for comfort and speed, and which needs only the removal of the tonneau to be converted into a racing wagon of sinister design.

Miss Harriman is an expert herself, but rarely goes out without a chauffeur, who really is little more than her racing mechanic when she gets out of the city boundaries and lets her big gasoline flyer go.

Took Early Ride.

With this chauffeur, Lucien Martine, the young heiress left her father's mansion today and set out for Riverside Drive. It was fairly early, and there was little traffic on the Drive, and the bicycle and motorcycle policemen were not much in evidence.

Miss Harriman's auto rumbled along at a modest ten miles an hour until at One Hundred and Twentieth street Miss Harriman spied Arthur L. Newton, an automobile agent, living at No. 25 West One Hundred and Fourth street, wearing a fifty-horse-power flyer, an American-built machine. She had heard business dealings with the young man and nodded to him as her car shot by.

Challenge to Race.

Returning down the Drive the two vehicles drew abreast at One Hundred and Twentieth street, when the young automobile agent remarked that he had a flyer that could make a dash for it. He then threw over his shoulder and shot ahead at a twenty-mile-an-hour clip.

"We haven't got on the road like that," said Miss Harriman to her chauffeur, but he had no time in hitching up his horse until the carburators sizzled and the wheels began to spin.

It was for comfort, the woman's auto is capable of sixty miles an hour, but at a level of such high speeds, the machine was running at a moderate clip, according to Ronda, chief of the Central Office, who was out on a motorcycle looking for violators of the speed limit. He took up the chase, but for a mile he could not get any better than the dust of the flying cars.

When the two vehicles dipped into the new hundredth street hollow Newton's auto led by one hundred yards. Miss Harriman was leaning way over, drawing her face lightly about her face and using her chauffeur to get the best out of the car that he could. He did so, and at Nineteenth street the French car shot by the American and began devouring it.

But Biceps Pollockman, Osborne, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, had been looking up the road at the flying automobiles and was ready to pounce on the machine and went before the court on a charge of speeding.

Stopped by Police.

Both cars stopped before the corner of Ninety-sixth street and the young woman placed Mr. Newton and Miss Harriman's chauffeur under arrest. The young woman rode to the West Sixty-eighth street station, got out of her machine and went before the court on a charge of speeding.

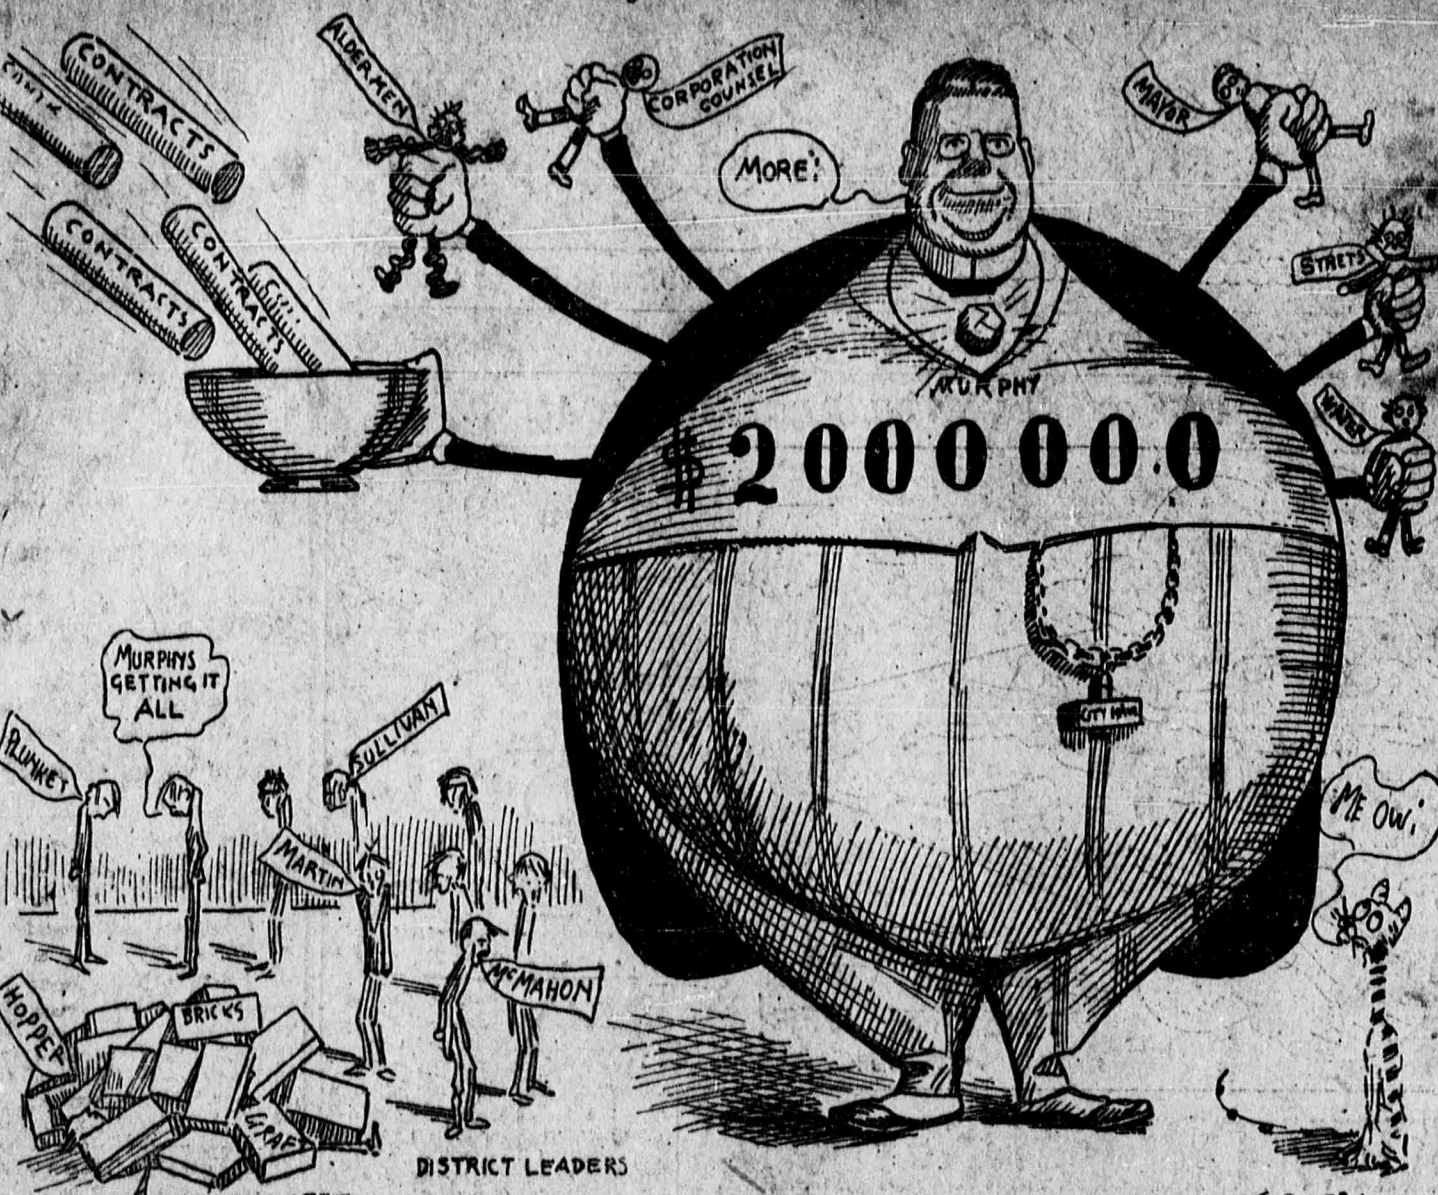

Miss Harriman's chauffeur and Newton were fined six each. The fines were paid and the party left court laughing and chatting about the incident.

JEROME PLANS CYCLONE FOR THE RIALTO

Calls in Acting Fire Chief to Aid in Crusade Against "Unsafe" Theatres.

District Attorney Jerome called upon the Fire Department today to co-operate with him in his crusade against theatres which he declares were built and are conducted in defiance of the building laws and city ordinances. Acting Chief Binns, of the Department, was summoned to Mr. Jerome's sanctum and a plan of campaign decided upon which, it is said, in the Criminal Courts Building, will cause a cyclone of excitement along the Rialto.

In his investigation the District Attorney found himself seriously handicapped. His men could not get into the theatres and learn what he wished to know. Managers objected to the Jerome investigators taking measurements and drawing diagrams, and as in the case of Oscar Brownstein, threats were made to kick the Public Prosecutor and his investigators into the street if they pursued their researches.

Looking up the law Mr. Jerome found that officers of the Fire Department had as far as they like in investigating a theatre and it is a misdemeanor to interfere with them in such a duty.

Chief Binns promised to see that the District Attorney was not hampered in learning what he wished to know about certain theatres and taking whatever steps he deemed advisable. The investigators from the District Attorney's office will have the entire co-operation of the Fire Department and may go as far as they like in probing into possible violations of the law.

The Mayor's investigation committee will also assist Mr. Jerome. This committee, the District Attorney was informed today, had discovered in one theatre registers in the floors. This is a violation of the law.

In some of these registers a quantity of burned matches were found.

CASTRO DEFIES ROOSEVELT TO ACT

Venezuelan President Flatly Refuses to Arbitrate Questions in Dispute, Holding that Matters Named in Ultimatum Are Still in the Courts.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Minister Bowen cabled the State Department today from Caracas that President Castro had flatly refused to arbitrate the pending issues between Venezuela and the United States.

The administration will take no action in regard to the reply. The matter was fully discussed at the Cabinet meeting today and it was determined to allow the matter to await developments. The situation is considered such as not to necessarily interfere with the departure of the President on his southwestern trip.

WILLEMSTAD, Island of Curacao, March 24.—It is announced from Caracas, Venezuela, that President Castro today replied to Minister Bowen's final proposal for arbitration denying that Venezuela has questions pending with the United States, and saying the case of the New York & Bermudez Asphalt Company must remain in the courts.

LONDON, March 24.—The signature of the agreement between Venezuela and the Anglo-German bondholders adjusting and consolidating the exterior debt (about $24,000,000) was completed this morning.

Sixty per cent of the customs of all the ports except La Guayra and Puerto Cabello are allocated as security.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 24.—Mr. McCormick, the retiring Ambassador to Russia, has received urgent instructions from Washington to proceed to Caracas, Venezuela, at the earliest possible moment.

Whether the desire of the State Department to have Mr. McCormick assume his duties in Paris at once is due to the prospect of an early opening of peace negotiations there, to the Venezuelan complications or to the wish of Ambassador Porter to depart sooner than expected is not known here.

VLADIVOSTOK GETS READY FOR BATTLE

(By Associated Press.)

GUNSHU PASS, Manchuria (108 miles north of Tie Pass), March 24.—The women and children are leaving Harbin, and the business houses are closing. The stationary hospitals are being moved back, and the entire railroad east and south of Tsitsihar is being prepared for the next stage of the war.

The conviction exists that Gen. Kuroki is now headed toward the northeast, for the investment of Vladivostok, changing his base for that purpose to Gensan.

CROWD WAITING IN VAIN FOR FLOATING POOL-ROOM TO-DAY.
(Photographed especially for The Evening World by a staff artist.)

POOLROOM BOAT FAILS TO SAIL

No Reason Given, but "John Doe" Calls the Scheduled Trip
Off—Wireless Men Threaten to Remove Apparatus.

The floating pool-room didn't float today. That is, she didn't float in the direction of Pier A, where about fifty men, who looked as if they had been playing "also rans," had gathered in anticipation of high play on the high seas. The sports were rather ashamed to acknowledge they were waiting for the Mount Desert.

The mysterious firm of Winter & Dow is said to be the charter party of the steamer. Winter & Dow are not in the directories, and neither Winter nor Dow appeared at the Battery today. A young man, who said he was John Doe, representative of Winter & Dow, sauntered around the outskirts of the waiting crowd at 12:30 and said in an accent of regret:

"Nothing doing today, boys—another hitch. Maybe she'll go out tomorrow. What's the matter? I really don't know, though they tell me there's something wrong with her Custom-House papers."

Then with a mournful wave of his hand he vanished. At the Custom-House it was said that the boat's papers were all right. C. C. Galbraith, of the Deforest Wireless Telegraph Company, said his apparatus on the boat was all right and in perfect order to send out racing information to the marine pool-room.

"I am getting tired of these delays myself," he said. "Unless the boat goes out tomorrow we will take our apparatus out."

When Capt. Robertson, of the Harbor Squad, was asked for information he replied:

"Maybe Jerome has hypnotized the boat. We certainly have not interfered, nor will we unless there is violation of the law within our jurisdiction."

The agent of the building at No. 42 Broadway, on the roof of which the Wireless Company has rigged a pole, declares he will chop down the pole if racing news is sent from it to the floating pool-room.

WOMAN KILLED BY FALL.
Climbed Through Window to Porch and Tumbled Two Stories.

NEWARK, N. J., March 24.—Augusta Steinmetz, a widow, sixty-one years old, who lived with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Leonhart, at No. 332 Fairmount avenue, climbed out of the window of the house early today to the front porch on the second floor, and fell to the street below. She struck on her head and was killed instantly.

The woman had been suffering from nervous prostration.

GIRL DEAD, MOTHER YET IN A TRANCE

Both Women Had Been in Deep Coma for Fifteen Days, Puzzling Doctors.

Miss Luella Henatis, who with her mother, Mrs. James H. Henatis, was overcome by gas fifteen days ago and has since remained in a death-like coma, died in the Presbyterian Hospital today. Her mother is expected to die at any moment.

Both women were stricken while visiting friends at No. 224 West One Hundred and Thirty-first street, and have never recovered consciousness since. They were removed to the Presbyterian Hospital two days after they were overcome.

Dr. Talbot, superintendent of the hospital, and all the members of his staff were at the bedside of the young woman when she died today. He said afterwards in an Evening World reporter: "Through a great deal of mystery has been made of this case there was none in it. It was a simple case of gas poisoning, though the coma has lasted remarkably long. We have done our best to keep up vitality by feeding the women on beaten eggs, but in their condition they cannot help but become emaciated and slowly decline. Death will be more like a sleep than anything else."

"When Miss Henatis died there was no shock or sudden rousing at the last moment. She just died, the vital chord being imperceptibly severed. Death will come the same way to the mother and it is only a matter of hours."

The dead woman was twenty-two years old and very good looking. Her home was in Mount Vernon.

PASTOR HAS HIS SON COMMITTED.

But He Objected to Catholic Protectors and Boy Goes to the Juvenile Asylum.

William Von Hallen, thirteen years old, son of Rev. H. Von Hallen, pastor of the German Lutheran Church on West Fifty-fifth street, was today committed for five days to the Juvenile Asylum by Justice Zeller in the Court of Special Sessions, Children's Branch. The commitment was made on the request of the boy's father.

A few days ago the Rev. Mr. Von Hallen was in the Children's Court and interceded for a youngster, the son of parishioners. Today when his own son was arraigned for growing stores Justice Zeller called the father and asked what he wanted done with the boy.

"Think," the father replied, "that if you commit him for a few days it will do him good."

"Oh, all right," Justice Zeller answered, "five days in the Catholic Protector."

The Justice got no further. Mr. Von Hallen raised his hands in protest.

"Please not that institution," he said. "I am a Protestant and would rather have him go to a Protestant institution."

Justice Zeller thereupon committed the boy to the Juvenile Asylum.

JULES VERNE, THE AUTHOR, DEAD.

With Family at Bedside He Succumbed to Illness Which Prostrated Him Weeks Ago.

AMIENS, France, March 24.—Jules Verne died at 2:10 P. M. His family was at his bedside.

The death of the famous author had been expected for two days, the doctors announcing on Wednesday that he could not recover from illness which prostrated him some weeks ago.

Verne died in the room in which he wrote his great stories.

3D AVE. TROLLEY CAR JUMPS TRACK.

Several Passengers Thrown to the Floor and Bruised and Women Become Hysterical.

Several persons were bruised and women passengers thrown into a panic this afternoon when a Third Avenue surface car jumped the track at Sixth street, tilted over and seemed about to fall on its side.

The car, No. 212, bound south, got off the track at a curve which is being repaired and in the confusion several passengers were thrown from their seats to the floor and painfully injured. Women screamed and became hysterical. The road was blocked more than a half hour before the wrecking crew could place the car back on the track.

SHERIFF WANTS $2235 FEE

Sheriff Erlanger thinks it is probably all right for Sarah C. Miller, of Long Branch, to "make up" with her husband, Charles C. Miller, the rubber magnate, and withdraw her suit to compel him to return $200,000 worth of bonds which she had entrusted to his keeping, but he wants the $2235 fee he earned when he levied on the bonds in the vaults of the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company early in his suit.

Maurice B. DuMont asked for an order to-day compelling Mr. Miller to pay the fee. Justice Gildersleeve refused the order.

INSULTED GIRL, DISMISSED BY COM. M'ADOO

Quick Punishment Meted Out to Patrolman Corcoran, Who Arrested Mary Fleming.

About the quickest punishment ever administered a brutal policeman was handed out today, when Patrolman John A. Corcoran, of the West Forty-seventh Street Station, was dismissed from the force by Commissioner McAdoo. On Sunday morning last Corcoran arrested Fannie Fleming, a respectable young colored woman employed as a domestic in the family of Richard B. Rose, of No. 24 West Fifty-ninth street, charging her with soliciting men on the street.

When the girl was taken to the station-house she had her prayerbook with her and said she was on the way to church. A number of citizens who had seen the arrest went to the station-house to complain about Corcoran's brutal treatment of the girl.

Girl Discharged.

In court later Magistrate Crane honorably discharged the girl, on her story that she was on her way to church at 8:15 o'clock Sunday morning when Corcoran stopped her and made an insulting proposition. She ran away from him and approached a citizen. Corcoran followed her, she said, and placed her under arrest, beating her with his club on the way to the station-house.

Corcoran was suspended at once when Commissioner McAdoo heard the story, and yesterday he was placed on trial. Today he was dismissed from the force.

Detective Reprimanded.

Stimson Melvor, the Tenderloin detective, who arrested a citizen some weeks ago, claiming that he had seen him steal a man's scarf pin on a street car, although it was afterward shown that the man was never on the car and was an eminently respectable person, was reprimanded because, the Commissioner said, he was a good detective.

The Commissioner, to-day, denied the application of a number of private law-enforcing societies for special police badges, and said he would take this stand permanently.

BRONCHITIS.

Everybody Knows What it is—But Everybody Does Not Know
What Will Cure It.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for bronchitis?" this well-known druggist answered: "The best way to get rid of it is to use Sloan's Liniment. I have used it for years and I know it is the best thing for it."

"For five years I was troubled with a terrible cough and bronchitis. I tried a great many different preparations without getting relief. I could not sleep and I became weak and night. Then I took Sloan's Liniment. I took it for a few days and I was cured. I am now as well as ever."
